Governors

You are cordially invited to attend the 2024 Oklahoma Chapter American College of Cardiology Annual Scientific Meeting on Saturday, March 2, 2024. The meeting will be offered only LIVE at the Nicholson Auditorium on the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Campus. Please plan to attend this session, which provides a great opportunity to earn AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™, to listen to nationally noted speakers, to network with cardiac care providers from diverse communities within the state and to get to know cardiology fellows-in-training.

Cardiovascular science is constantly evolving, with both new discoveries and new therapies being published each year. This educational activity will provide the cardiovascular professional team with an update on a selected number of high-priority items identified from environmental scanning, with discussion of both the science and evidence behind current recommendations. The overall goal for this year's conference is improvement of patient care through increasing learner competence, leading to improved performance in applying evidence-based treatment options. This is a great opportunity to bring your whole team for a day of great professional development.

The ACC is our professional association and each of you, as Oklahoma ACC members, are key components of our state Chapter. We ask that you and your colleagues attend this very important and informative meeting.

OKLAHOMA ACC'S SCIENTIFIC SESSION

The annual scientific meeting of Oklahoma Chapter of American College of Cardiology is a half-day long session aimed at providing updates on important cardiovascular topics relevant to the clinical practice of cardiology. The session provides instruction delivered through formal presentations by leaders in the field, with the goal of enhancing both knowledge and skills of the care team for appropriate care of patients based on latest guidelines, and meeting the unique needs of special populations.

DISCLOSURE INFORMATION

As a provider jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the American College of Cardiology Foundation (ACCF) must ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all of their directly provided or jointly provided/co-provided educational activities. Planners, presenters, and other contributors, in a position to control the content are required to disclose to the audience all relevant financial relationships he/she and/or his/her spouse or domestic partner may have, occurring within the past 24 months, with any entity producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients. When an unlabeled use of a commercial product or an investigational use not yet approved for any purpose is discussed during an educational activity, the contributor should disclose that the product is not labeled for the use under discussion or that the product is still investigational.

ACCF is committed to providing its learners with high quality activities and materials that promote improvements and quality in health care and not a specific proprietary business or commercial interest. The intent of this disclosure is not to prevent participation in educational activities by persons with a financial or other relationship, but rather to provide learners with information on which they can make their own determination whether financial interests or relationships may influence the education activity.

ACCF assesses conflicts of interest (COI) with its faculty, planners, managers, staff, and other individuals who are in a position to control the content of certified activities. All relevant potential conflicts of interest that are identified are thoroughly vetted by course directors, ACCF education staff, and members of the Accreditation Compliance Workgroup (ACWG) through a process that includes appropriate peer review for fair balance, scientific objectivity and validity, and patient care and safety recommendations.

ACCF has taken the necessary steps to ensure that all relevant financial relationships have been mitigated. Please note the ACCF Staff and the ACWG members involved with this activity have nothing to disclose.

2024 ANNUAL SCIENTIFIC MEETING

GENERAL INFORMATION

STATEMENT OF NEED

Standards of Cardiovascular Care are constantly evolving, and practitioners might find it difficult to keep up with the latest guideline recommendations. Some members of the College have limited opportunities to interact with experts in the field.

OVERALL GOAL

The overall goal of this program is to help the cardiovascular clinician provide comprehensive presentations by experts on topics currently considered relevant to the care of cardiovascular patients, including unique populations.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this program, attendees should be able to:

1. Review features, current guidelines on management and invasive and novel pharmacotherapies for HCM.
2. Discuss newer tools including strain, pressure-volume loops, myocardial work, dyssynchrony, and diastology for assessing ventricular performance of adult congenital heart disease.
3. Recognize when to refer patients with suspected genetic cardiovascular diseases for genetic counseling and testing and how to interpret actionable results.
4. Explore the burden and identify targets to address health disparities in cardiovascular disease.
5. Discuss the types, diagnostic approach, current FDA therapies and ongoing clinical trials in amyloidosis.
6. Discuss the current definitions and evidence behind the new definitions of cardiogenic shock.
7. Review the different presentation, diagnosis, treatment and outcomes of Peripheral Artery Disease in women.
8. Review the input from non-gated chest CT, coronary CT and FFR in multiple cardio-oncology settings.

DISCLAIMER

Abstracts and articles contained in this course guide have been reprinted with permission.

This information is provided for general medical education purposes only and is not meant to substitute for the independent medical judgment of a clinician relative to diagnostic and treatment options for a specific patient's medical condition.

The American College of Cardiology Foundation (ACCF) does not warrant the completeness, accuracy or usefulness of any opinions, advice, services or other information provided through this activity. In no event will ACCF be liable for any decision made, or action taken, in reliance upon the information provided through this activity.

Accredited status does not imply endorsement by ACC of any commercial products displayed in conjunction with this activity.

ACCF reserves the right to modify faculty and program without notice.

TARGET AUDIENCE

This course is intended for Cardiologists, CV Surgeons, Pharmacists, Cardiovascular Physician Trainees, Internists, Primary Care Physicians, Physician Assistants, Nurse Practitioners, and other health care providers.

INTERPROFESSIONAL CONTINUING EDUCATION

EXHIBITOR ACKNOWLEDGMENT

At the time of printing, a complete listing of industry supporters was not available. Appropriate acknowledgment will be made upon confirmation of support at the time of the course.

ACCREDITATION

In support of improving patient care, the American College of Cardiology Foundation (ACCF) is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to _____ Medical Knowledge MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine's (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) Program.

Participants will earn MOC points equivalent to the amount of CME credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Physicians:

The ACCF designates this live educational activity for a maximum of _____ AMA PRA Category I Credit(s)™.

Physicians, nurses and pharmacists should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
